CHAPTER 1

Introduction

1-1 Purpose

This regulation prescribes the authorization for wear, composition, and classification of uniforms of the Army Component and Air Component. It also prescribes the wear of the awards, uniform accessories, badges, insignias and accouterments authorized on CSMR uniforms,

1-2 References

Required and related publications are listed in appendix A.

1-3. Explanation of abbreviations and terms

Abbreviations and special terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

1-4. General

a. The California Military and Veterans Code, Section 120, states "The militia of the State shall consist of the National Guard, State Military Reserve, and the Naval Militia—which constitute the active militia—and the unorganized militia."

b. United States Code Title 32, Chapter 1, Section 109 authorizes states to maintain a defense force in addition to its National Guard. The California State Military Reserve (CSMR) is California's State Defense Force (SDF).

c. Army Regulation AR 670-1 prescribes the Department of the Army (DA) policies and procedures for the wearing of the Army Uniform. AR 670-1 Paragraph 30-8c states:

"State defense forces (SDF) may adopt the Army service and BDU uniforms, provided all service uniform buttons, cap devices, and other insignia differ significantly from that prescribed for wear by members of the U.S. Army. State insignia will not include "United States," "U.S.," "U.S. Army," or the Great Seal of the United States. Personnel of the SDF may wear a State-designed SDF distinguishing badge or insignia centered on the left pocket flap. The red nametape or nameplate will include the full title of the SDF (for example, "Texas State Guard"). The utility uniforms will contain a State SDF tape in lieu of "U.S. Army" over the left breast pocket. States wishing to adopt the Army service and utility uniforms will register with the Chief, National Guard Bureau."

d. Department of the Army memo DAPE-HR-IR dated 28 Apr 2006 authorized the CSMR Army Component to adopt the Army blue, blue mess, and blue evening dress uniforms with significant distinctive modifications.

e. The Adjutant General of California memo CAAG dated 22 March 2007 and National Guard Bureau memo NGB-J5 dated 2 July 2007 registered the CSMR Army Component uniform with the Chief, National Guard Bureau in accordance with AR 670-1, Sec 30-8c.

f. Department of the Air Force memo dated 13 September 2007 authorized the CSMR Air Component to adopt the Air Force service dress, mess dress, battle dress uniforms, and future airman battle uniform and Heritage jacket with significant distinctive modifications

1-5 Policy

a. The CSMR uniforms will be worn in accordance with AR 670-1 and AFI 36-2903 including all provisions of those regulations, changes, supplements, or interim implementing instructions pending the next update to those regulations, except for the significantly distinct changes listed in this regulation. This includes the adopting of new U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force uniforms as they are adopted by the U.S. Army and the U.S. Air Force and phased in.

b. Currently the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force are implementing new combat and service dress uniforms. The Army Combat Uniform (ACU) is being phased in by the U.S. Army and the Airman Battle Uniform (ABU) is being phased in by the U.S. Air Force as the replacements for the Army and Air Force Battle Dress Uniforms (BDU). The CSMR Army Component will follow the U.S. Army time line for the ACU phase in and mandatory wear date and the CSMR Air Component will follow the U.S. Air Force time line for ABU phase in and mandatory wear date. The ACU will be worn in accordance with the Department of the Army (DA) messages implementing its wear, to include the wearing of the American flag on the right sleeve. The ABU will be worn in accordance with the Department of the Air Force implementing instructions on its wear. The CSMR will follow the time lines and implementation instructions for phasing in the Army Service Uniform (ASU) and the Air Force Heritage Jacket as they are published.

c. All authorized federal, state, and foreign decorations; service medals, awards, and ribbons; unit awards and citations; marksmanship badges and tabs; combat and special skill badges and tabs; identification badges;

foreign badges; aeronautical and space badges; duty badges; miscellaneous badges; occupational badges; chaplain badges and insignias; other qualification badges; other uniform devices; and appurtenances that an individual is authorized to wear will be worn in accordance with the AR 670-1 and AFI 36-2903.

d. Other than the distinctive modifications listed in Chapters 2 and 4, there will be no other modifications, deletions, or additions made to any uniform.

1-6. Appearance

CSMR personnel in the Army Component will follow the appearance and grooming standards in AR 670-1 and CSMR personnel in the Air Component will follow the appearance and grooming standards in AFI 36-2903.

1-7. Height and Weight Standards

All CSMR personnel will conform to the height and weight standards prescribed in CSMR Reg 600-9.

CHAPTER 2

Army Component Uniforms

2-1. Authorization for wear

The uniform for the CSMR Army Component will be the Army utility, service, and dress uniforms worn in accordance with AR 670-1 with the following significantly distinct changes only.

2-2. Army Utility Uniforms

The "U.S. ARMY" nametape over the left breast pocket will be replaced with a nametape which will read "CALIFORNIA". (Para 3-8)

2-3. Army Service Uniform

- a. The "U.S." insignia will be replaced with a "CA" insignia. (Para 3-3)
- b. All authorized "U.S. Army buttons" will be replaced with California State "Eureka" buttons. (Para 3-1)
- c. The black nameplate will be replaced with a red nameplate which will read as follows: (Para 3-8)

- d. The "U.S. Army" headgear insignia will be replaced with the CSMR headgear insignia on the service cap. (Para 3-5)

2-4. Army Blue Mess and Blue Evening Mess Uniforms

- a. All authorized "U.S. Army buttons" will be replaced with California State "Eureka" buttons. (Para 3-1)
- b. The CSMR Distinctive Unit Insignia (DUI) will be worn on the right lapel centered ½ inch below the notch in the lapel. (Para 3-6)
- c. The "U.S. Army" headgear insignia will be replaced with the CSMR headgear insignia on the service cap. (Para 3-3)

CHAPTER 3

Army Component Uniform Accessories, Insignia, and Accouterments

3-1. Buttons

The CSMR buttons are yellow gold plated California State "Eureka" buttons with the seal of California superimposed (see fig 3-1).

3-2. Coats, black, all weather (male and female) and windbreaker, black

Enlisted personnel will wear a CA insignia on the all weather coat and windbreak, centered on the shoulder loops an equal distance from the outside shoulder seam to the outside edge of the button, with the base of the CA insignia toward the outside shoulder seam.
